FASCINATING CITY & INSPIRING ALPINE LANDSCAPE: INNSBRUCK IS MORE

The morning sun bathes the pale peaks of the Nordkette mountain range in golden light. It's a sight that brings a sparkle to the eyes of visitors and locals alike. In the middle of town? Yes indeed! The mountains are our constant companions. They are all around us, visible throughout the city and always in our sights. Innsbruck is more: more than a city, more than mountains, more than just a holiday destination. Innsbruck is an alpine city experience.

HIGHLIGHTS

The Goldenes Dachl (Golden Roof), Innsbruck's famous landmark in the heart of the old town, was built for Emperor Maximilian I. Then there's the Imperial Palace, the Court Church and the Imperial Gardens. The backdrop is the Nordkette mountain range, gateway to the Karwendel mountains. We love our beautiful surroundings, and so will you! There's nowhere like it, with the mountains and city so closely linked. The alpine panorama is all around you, wherever you go: even as you stroll through the medieval old town, between the shady arcades and colourful façades of historic houses.

YOUR PERFECT DAY TRIP TO INNSBRUCK

INNS' BRUCK

SUGGESTED PROGRAMME FOR A FASCINATING ALPINE CITY EXPERIENCE

The morning is devoted to visiting SWAROVSKI CRYSTAL WORLDS in WATTENS. A true wonderland of fantasy awaits you with its unique Chambers of Wonder, ranging from an indoor winter wonderland to one of the most spectacular mirror installations by Yayoi Kusama. A recent highlight is the newly opened Chamber of Wonder Pulse Voronoi, one of the latest and most impressive additions. To date, this popular destination in Tyrol has delighted more than 17 million visitors from all over the world.

The shopping experience in the Swarovski Crystal Worlds is in a class of its own: in one of the largest Swarovski stores worldwide, guests can explore an extraordinary range of crystal creations. For lunch, we suggest the restaurant “Daniels Kristallwelten” in Wattens or a drive to Innsbruck, where numerous restaurants for organized group menus or individual catering for guests are available.

After lunch, you can take a ride up the NORDKETTE, leaving from “Congress” station in central Innsbruck. In just 30 minutes, three spectacular funicular railways take you to the “Top of Innsbruck”, at 2300 metres on the Hafelekar. There you will enjoy impressive views over the city of Innsbruck on one side, and the Karwendel nature park on the other. The direct transport link to the city means this mountaintop viewpoint is easily accessible to anyone, offering a unique panorama of the city and mountains that is really everything you could wish for. The unspoilt landscape of the Karwendel nature park, surrounded by mountain peaks as far as the eye can see, will give you an unforgettable feeling of goosebumps. Gazing down on the city will make you want to explore it in more detail once you get back down the mountains. After your visit to the Nordkette, a tour of the historic town centre is the perfect way to continue your alpine city experience.

And when you have finished strolling around the town, you can round off your day in Innsbruck at a TYROLEAN EVENING WITH THE GUNDOLF FAMILY, in the new, rustic-style ALPENSAAL an der Messe in central Innsbruck. The Gundolf Family presents top-quality traditional entertainment, with folk music, Tyrolean dancing and “shoe-slapping”, singing and yodelling. A three-course dinner menu is also available at additional cost, and can be booked for either 19:00/7 p.m., before the show, or from 20:30/8.30 p.m., during the performance. The Tyrolean show programme from the Gundolf Family is one of the best traditional entertainments in the entire Alpine region, and the perfect way to round off your Innsbruck experience!
